Dick Trainer seems to have a penchant for small villainy. He played the watchman some months ago, arrested an unsophisticated woman, and released him again upon payment of five dollars. For this offence he was himself arrested, and the crime amounting to a felony, he was indicted by the grand jury of the Circuit Court. He was lucky, however, and escaped punishment in that tribunal. Emboldened by his former success, he made a fine coat from a guest at one of the city hotels, the same day he was released from custody, and was promptly arrested by officers Jod Lamborn and Thomas Antle. He will be lucky indeed if he escape punishment for this second offence.

CITY HOSPITALS.—There are at present one thousand three hundred patients in the military hospitals in this city. During the past week about four hundred were admitted, seven hundred transferred to Cincinnati, one hundred and twenty-nine returned to duty, sixty-four discharged from service, nine furloughs granted, thirteen deaths, and thirty-four deaths. The ratio of deaths to a thousand sick was twelve. There were fifty surgeons employed in the several hospitals, and two hundred and seventy-two nurses, and sixty-four cooks. There are one thousand one hundred patients each in the various hospitals.

Death of Capt. Webb.—Capt. George W. Webb, of company C, Twelfth Kentucky Cavalry, Col. Shanks, died at his residence at Brandenburg, Meade county, Ky., on Friday last, the 23d inst. His death was very unexpected, as, since his arrival at home, he had appeared to be recovering from disease contracted while in camp. The deceased was a noble, generous man, esteemed by his neighbors, and beloved by the soldiers under his command. It will be indeed difficult to supply his place in the army, and his loss in the social circle is irreparable.

RESOLUTIONS.—The following officers of the Eighteenth Kentucky regiment, stationed at Lexington, have resigned: Major F. G. Bracht; Captain Littlejohn, Co. F; Captain Rodgers, Co. I; Captain Pugley, Co. E; Captain Johnson, Co. B; Lieutenants Davis and Clements, Co. I; Lieutenants Sibley and Richards, Co. F; Lieutenants Christiana and Puttball, Co. B, and Lieutenant Boys, Co. G. We understand that it is highly probable Captain H. W. Eggleston will be chosen Major of the regiment in place of Major Bracht.
